Les Marees Terrestres

"The rise and fall of kings and nations!"--Cover.

In October 1934, the Chinese Communist Army found itself facing annihilation, surrounded by hundreds of thousands of Nationalist soldiers. Rather than surrender, 86,000 Communists embarked on an epic flight to safety. Only thirty were women. Their trek would eventually cover 4,000 miles over 370 days. Under enemy fire they crossed highland awamps, climbed Tibetan peaks, scrambled over chain bridges, and trudged through the sands of the western deserts. Fewer than 10,000 of them would survive, but remarkably all of the women would live to tell the tale. Unbound is an amazing story of love, friendship, and survival written by a new master of adventure narrative.

You were introduced to Milan, femme fatale of all femme fatales in Amid the Cacophony of Cries. What happens when this elite escort is given the keys to her on-again, off-again lover's international cocaine trafficking empire? What happens when she's expected to shoulder the burdens and blessings of spearheading all of his business operations, upscale call-girl ring, and handling his enemies? Milan is more ruthless than ever in The Head Mistress. She becomes the first woman to unwittingly inherit an international underground drug network which grosses over $12 million a month, in the formerly male dominated trafficking world of Kevin Restrepo and his Restrepo Cartel. An incest victim molested by her own uncle, turned elite call girl who came from the gritty streets of Los Angeles, Milan comes to terms with untold demons. Her Puerto Rican lover grants her access to the workings of his underground drug network. When he gets arrested by the feds she is expected to pick up where he leaves off. Sudden promotion puts her in the line of fire of a very wealthy, feared, and deadly man. She learns that she's a marked woman and there's a hit out on her life. Amid a cesspool of betrayal, Kevin's younger brother and business partner falls madly in love with Milan. What ensues is a lusty, tempestuous, kinky, torrid triangle of sorts. Being the promiscuous scandal-magnet that she is, Milan befriends a married woman who is highly curious about a bisexual relationship but waffles because of her commitment to God and her marriage to a prominent pastor of a world-renowned mega church in Brooklyn. While Milan miraculously survives brush after brush with

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Jason M. Hough’s pulse-pounding debut combines the drama, swagger, and vivid characters of Joss Whedon’s Firefly with the talent of sci-fi author John Scalzi. In the mid-23rd century, Darwin, Australia, stands as the last human city on Earth. The world has succumbed to an alien plague, with most of the population transformed into mindless, savage creatures. The planet’s refugees flock to Darwin, where a space elevator—created by the architects of this apocalypse, the Builders—emits a plague-suppressing aura. Skyler Luiken has a rare immunity to the plague. Backed by an international crew of fellow “immunes,” he leads missions into the dangerous wasteland beyond the aura’s edge to find the resources Darwin needs to stave off collapse. But when the Elevator starts to malfunction, Skyler is tapped—along with the brilliant scientist, Dr. Tania Sharma—to solve the mystery of the failing alien technology and save the ragged remnants of humanity. Praise for The Darwin Elevator “A hell of a fun book.”—James S. A. Corey, New York Times bestselling author of Abaddon’s Gate “[Jason M.] Hough’s first novel combines the rapid-fire action and memorable characters associated with Joss Whedon’s short-lived Firefly TV series with the accessibility and scientific acumen of [James S. A.] Corey’s ‘Expanse’ series.”—Library Journal (starred review) “The best part about alien stories is their mystery, and Jason Hough understands that like no other. Full of compelling characters and thick with tension, The Darwin Elevator delivers both despair and hope along with a gigantic dose of wonder. It’s a brilliant debut, and Hough can take my money whenever he writes anything from now on.”—Kevin Hearne, New York Times bestselling author of The Iron Druid Chronicles “Newcomer Hough displays a talent for imaginative plotting and realistic dialogue, and the brisk pacing and cliffhanger ending will keep readers enthralled and eagerly awaiting the next installment.”—Publishers Weekly “Jason M. Hough does a great job with this huge story. The world of Darwin and the Elevator is deliciously complex and satisfying. Skyler, Tania, and all the other characters are delightfully drawn and fun to spend time with. . . . The story unfolds with just the right balance of high adventure, espionage, humor, and emotional truth. . . . As soon as you finish, you’ll want more.”—Analog “A debut novel unlike any other . . . This is something special. Something iconic. The Darwin Elevator is full of majesty and wonder, mystery and mayhem, colorful characters and insidious schemes.”—SF Signal “Fun, action-packed and entertaining . . . a sure contender for science fiction debut of the year!”—Pat’s Fantasy Hotlist “Claustrophobic, intense, and satisfying . . . I couldn’t put this book down. The Darwin Elevator depicts a terrifying world, suspends it from a delicate thread, and forces you to read with held breath as you anticipate the inevitable fall.”—Hugh Howey, New York Times bestselling author of Wool
